Technology Association of Georgia featured Hannon Hill in RSS Discussion

On February 16th, Hannon Hill's David Cummings moderated a panel discussion held by the Technology Association of Georgia at Macquarium, one of the largest interactive agencies in the Southeast. Joining the panel were Greg Tyree (CNN), Brett McCarey (Macquarium), and Scott Voigt (Silverpop). The panel discussed RSS as a powerful content distribution mechanism for news outlets, businesses, and marketers, and talked about how to increase awareness of RSS.
