MCG Health System Launches RSS Feeds with Cascade Server

ATLANTA & AUGUSTA - OCTOBER 13, 2005 – Hannon Hill Corporation, a leading provider of web content management (WCM) solutions, today announced that the MCG Health System launched several new RSS feeds covering breaking news information and press releases powered by Cascade Server.

"RSS feeds are a great way for us to stay in touch with our community," says Cecelia Thomas, Web Manager for MCG Health, Inc. "We are actively working to enhance our web presence and RSS feeds provide another mechanism for providing information to our community. Cascade Server makes it easy to manage content that is automatically published in multiple formats, like standard web pages and RSS feeds."

Users of the MCGHealth.org website will notice small orange buttons that say "RSS" providing a direct link to plug into any standard RSS reader. These feeds are updated on a regular basis whenever content is changed on the website. An example feed can be found on the MCG Health System website by browsing to the "News" section followed by the "Press Room" area.

The RSS feeds were launched in early October 2005.
