BarkleyREI provides website development and online marketing services to clients in a number of industries, including travel and tourism, education, consumer products, and not-for-profit. The agency is a full-service interactive consulting, web design, and technology development shop that relies on a wide variety of specialists to deliver some of the most exciting experiences in the interactive world.

Beacon Technologies

Beacon Technologies, founded in 1997, is composed primarily of senior IT professionals with extensive experience in large-scale IT projects, emphasizing teamwork and methodology. Beacon provides custom web site development, creative graphic design, comprehensive hosting services and highly effective search engine marketing solutions in tandem with the Cascade Server CMS software.

Business & Decision

Business & Decision is a leading international consulting and data management company specializing in business intelligence, customer relationship management, and e-business. With over 2,500 employees worldwide and strategic partnerships with key technology vendors, they've developed a "complete project approach," comprising consulting, implementation, hosting, training, change management, and more.

Duo Consulting

Duo Consulting develops websites that help drive business results online. Duo Consulting deploys web content management systems to enable easy creation, management, and re-purposing of content. This insures that your website drives your business goals, is focused on your target site visitors and empowers your marketing strategies.

mStoner

mStoner helps nonprofit organizations--college and universities, independent schools, foundations and associations--develop and implement technology-based communication solutions. Our writers, designers and technology experts are outstanding in their fields, and we work collaboratively with our clients to create solid technology architecture, powerful messaging and content, and award-winning design.

NewCity

NewCity helps their clients make connections with people by telling their stories through beautiful and intuitive design. NewCity offers a full range of web development and branded online experiences. NewCity's collaborative approach has garnered the respect of clients in the higher education, travel and tourism, and manufacturing industries, not to mention their peers.
